

THE BORN-ALIVE ABORTION SURVIVORS PROTECTION ACT
IS NOW TEED UP FOR A VOTE IN THE U.S. SENATE.

My personal encounter with Rowan underscores why this is so important.

Rowan would have turned 18 this year. Getting ready to graduate from high school, anticipating the prom and deciding where to go to college — but all that was cut short. Instead, his mother was left screaming in the abortion clinic bathroom, “Call 911!” — all because Rowan had been born alive following an abortion, perfectly fine for a baby of about 23 weeks. When the mom saw her son, she immediately changed her mind, but clinic workers ignored her cries for help.

Despite Angele pleading for medical help for her son, who was moving and very much alive, clinic workers let the child die ... and even turned away the paramedics after her friend frantically called 911, the recording of which we have in our possession. Angele contacted me, and I will never forget my visit to the morgue in Orlando, Florida.

And no one was ever prosecuted ...

This week, the U.S. Senate opened the door to vote on HR 26 — the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act. If this measure passes the Senate, it will REQUIRE that all children who survive an abortion receive proper medical care and a shot at life. If HR 26 becomes law, post-birth abortion will finally be a federal crime. Read on to learn more about Baby Rowan and how you and I can prevent such travesties from happening. — Mat
